Thank you for your generosity!

"Have no anxiety at all, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, make your requests known to God." (Philippians 4:6)

St. Paul reminds us that God is an abundant God – He is the ultimate giver of gifts. He promises to give us all that we need. Remember, that we are created in God's image and likeness. We, too, are made to be generous with all of our gifts as well. Placing our trust in God frees us from being a slave to possessions. It allows us to gratefully and generously share ourselves and our goods with others.

Rest in Peace

Marjorie Strohl
Mother of Jennifer Strohl

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May the souls of all the faithful departed, through the Mercy of God, Rest in Peace.

PASTOR'S CORNER

ODDS AND ENDS

Penance:
Advent and Lent are great times to grow, and one of the best ways to advance in the spiritual life is to make use of the Sacrament of Reconciliation. It is a time to look at your life honestly, not in shame or disgrace, but with hope for something better, something more life-giving, something more fulfilling. I have been "hearing confessions" for a long time now and I cannot think of a single person who has walked away humiliated or embarrassed. In fact, most people walk out of the confessional lighter, happier and more determined to become a better version of themselves. Who doesn't need that?

We have an opportunity for Reconciliation every Saturday before the evening Mass, but you can call any rectory (you need not go to your own parish) and make an appointment with a priest. On Wednesday evening, December 22nd, we will have a Parish Penance Service at 7 pm. We will have a short common service and then the opportunity for individual confession of sins and absolution. I will stay as long as it takes.

Christmas Mass Schedule:
It might be a good time to plan ahead for Christmas. Christmas on a Saturday is somewhat problematic, so please read this part carefully. Here is the schedule:

December 24, Christmas Eve, we will have only one morning Mass at 6:15 am. Then, that night we will have two Masses to celebrate Christmas, one at 5 pm and one at 10 pm. The 10 pm Mass is our "Midnight" service. (Personally, I am grateful that this parish celebrates that early, because as I get older and older it becomes incredibly difficult to stay up that late.)

December 25, on Christmas morning, we will likewise have two Masses at 8 am and 10 am. Christmas as you see is on a Saturday, which means that we will not have a 5 pm Mass for Sunday on Christmas evening. Sorry. I will be celebrating with my family.

December 26, we will have our regular Mass schedule for Sunday, the Feast of the Holy Family (7:30, 9 and 11).
So to repeat: NO SATURDAY EVENING MASS ON CHRISTMAS EVENING.

Opportunities to Share:
As you may have heard there are multiple opportunities to share your love with others this Christmas. There have been boxes at the entrances to Church to be filled with non-perishable items for the food pantry at Immaculate Conception in Maplewood. Beyond food, you may want to also put in your gift, toiletries. A friend of mine shared a meme about what to put in your food box and what to avoid giving, and toiletries, of all sorts, were at the top of the list of things to give. Those boxes are to be brought back this week.

Second, we have our Giving Tree. This could not be easier to do. Many of the ornaments have very specific things to buy and even some have the places to go to purchase them. Then, if you have an ornament from Cardinal Glennon Children's Hospital, you don't have to wrap it. (I am a hopeless gift wrapper. When I wrap presents they are an absolute mess. Thank God for cards and gift bags!!)

Next, we have a pancake breakfast today with Santa to help benefit our twin parish in Haiti. I have been blown away by this parish's response to the needs of our brothers and sisters in Haiti. They have had a lot to deal with this past year, earthquakes and assassinations, and so it is good that we think of them around this season.

Finally, you can help Holy Redeemer School by participating in our PIP (Parents in Partnership) Program to benefit our school. Education has always been a huge priority for me when I donate, both here and at my former school Borgia High. Catholic schools make the most of the gifts they are given and the need is always great.

Have a great end to the Season of Advent!!

Father Kevin

Dear Parish Family,

Our Giving Tree has some new ornaments for Cardinal Glennon Children's Hospital patients and those served by Immaculate Conception's Outreach Program.

Gifts for Cardinal Glennon need not be wrapped, but you are welcome to gift wrap all others. Please drop off gifts under the tree before or after weekend masses only.

If you would like to drop off your gift during the week, please do so at the Parish Office during business hours.

Deadline for gifts is Sunday, December 19 at Noon. Any questions, please call 314-420-6625. Thank you so much for your generosity each year! Merry Christmas and a very Happy New Year!

Blessing to all-
Bo & Kathy Plurad

TUNE IN TO CATHOLIC RADIO THIS ADVENT SEASON

As the liturgical year ends and a new one begins, tune in to Covenant Network for the best in Catholic radio programming to help you prepare your heart to receive the Christ Child this Christmas season. Tune in to KHOJ 1460 AM or 96.7 FM on the radio or listen live on our free Covenant Network App or at OurCatholicRadio.org.

Christmas Light Recycling : As we decorate our homes with lights for the season, we might find a strand or two that has stopped working. Don't throw them in the landfill! The Green Machines are once again offering the Christmas Light Recycling Program. A collection box can be found outside of the school office or mark your box and leave in the back of church. Please bring your old or broken Christmas lights through mid-January.

Have a Green Christmas with these tips:

1. It wouldn't be Christmas without lots of tasty treats! As we gather once again with family and friends, here are a few easy easy ways to keep your gathering Earth-friendly.
Good: Rinse, dry, and recycle your glass bottles, aluminum cans, and plastic containers.
Better: Remember to keep food out of your recycling! You can even try composting your food scraps.
Best: Source your party snacks and treats from local merchants. Support the community AND reduce your household's carbon footprint. Your guests will love trying St. Louis's local fare!

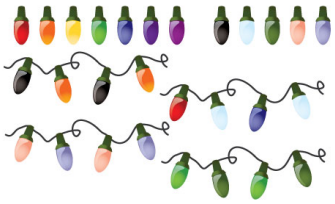
Green Christmas Tip #3!



3. Christmas shopping comes with lots of boxes! Take a few extra moments this year to give a gift to the Earth.
Good: Be sure to fully break down all of your boxes before putting them in recycling!
Better: Pull off all plastic packing tape before tossing those boxes. Paper packing tape can be recycled.
Best: Shop local to avoid energy emissions caused by shipping. Save a few extra dollars with curbside pickup, or shop in person - safely, of course!
