"I will be their God and they shall be my people." - JEREMIAH 31:33

What does it mean to be God's people? It means we recognize that everything we have and everything we are belongs to God. We aren't "owners" of anything, we are merely "stewards" of the gifts God has given us. It means we are willing to use our gifts and our lives to care for our family, our neighbors and for people we don't know, just as God cares for each of us.

Thank you for your generosity!

PASTOR'S CORNER

So, how would you pronounce this*: Brfxxccxxmnpcccclllmmnprxvclmnckss-qlbb1116*? If you said: ALBIN, you win. (You also probably cheated.) This was a baby name that some parents wanted to inflict on their child. (Reader's Digest version: They were angry at the government.)

Across the world, parents have been denied permission to name their child just any old name. There are various reasons for this.

First, copyright violation. Some parents wanted to name their child after brand names. So, "Lego" and "Ikea" were rejected. I have heard of people naming their child "Espn" and so I think there is a point here. However, there are some legitimate names that didn't make the cut in some places. For example: "Mercedes."

Second, some names are tantamount to child abuse. Governments say that they are protecting children from future ridicule and bullying. There may be a point here. Some countries have stopped parents from naming their child (ahem) "Cyanide," "Judas" and "Robocop." Although I agree that "Robocop" may not inspire bullying. Once again there are some legitimate names that were also nixed. "Peppermint" Patty and "Wolf" Blitzer would have to have other monikers.

Third, some are not allowed for cultural reasons. Iceland is particularly stuffy with this. So "Harriet" had to be renamed "Stulka" (literally "girl"),. And Camilla didn't work because apparently the letter "C" is not allowed. "Tom" did not work in Portugal because they don't allow nicknames. Sorry Tomas! And parents were not allowed to name their children "." (pronounced: full stop) or "@." Apparently punctuation is a no-no. Even in California you cannot name a child Jose' because accent or diacritical marks are not allowed. Sorry Jose.

There are more sinister reasons as well. The name "Sarah" is not allowed in Morocco because it sounds too Hebraic. "Mecca," "Islam," and "Quran," are not allowed in China. Take a wild guess why.

In Romeo and Juliet, Shakespeare mused: "What's in a name?" Apparently, a lot. The name of God was so sacred that people dared not even utter it. (It gave them too much control over God.) Last month, our eighth graders got to choose a new Confirmation name. I liked their choices. (winner: Sebastian – patron of athletes) No one picked Kevin (meaning: of noble birth), but that's OK, St. Kevin was a bit off. Their names gave them a special, new and singular identity and another patron to admire and imitate.

Thank goodness, no one picked Robocop. But there is a St. Albin…

Father Kevin

Prayer Service for Spiritual Healing

Archbishop Mitchell Rozanski will preside at a Prayer Service for Spiritual Healing on Tuesday, March 23rd, at 7:00 pm, here at Holy Redeemer. As usual, masks must be worn and social distancing observed at the prayer service.

All survivors of physical, sexual, emotional or verbal abuse by anyone - clergy, family, friends, co-workers or strangers - are invited to attend the prayer service. In addition, family members and friends of survivors and all who want to pray for healing and reconciliation are encouraged to join us.

The Archdiocesan Office of Child and Youth Protection, in collaboration with the Office of Sacred Worship, is organizing and sponsoring the prayer service.

For more information, please contact Carol Brescia, Victim Assistance Coordinator in the Office of Child and Youth Protection, at carolbrescia@archstl.org or 314-378-3627.

Lenten Offering for the Haiti Goat & Chicken Project.

Give the gift that keeps on giving this Lenten season.

Food insecurity continues to be a significant problem in Haiti and in our twinned parish in St. Jean du Sud. This year, the Catholic parishes of Holy Redeemer, Mary Queen of Peace, and Annunciation are joining together in a Lenten Offering to support the Goat & Chicken Project sponsored by the HR Haiti Mission.

The project, administered by a local Haitian development organization called AVOREDES, will provide 100 needy families in St. Jean du Sud with their own female goat, four laying hens, elite Boer male goats for breeding, participant training, and veterinary support. As an added feature, recipient families must donate their first female kid goat to another family so that, in the end, as many as 200 families could benefit. The goal of the Goat & Chicken Project is to provide families with additional sources of food and income and to improve the performance/genetics of their goat herds thru breeding. A family sponsorship is $200 and includes the full cost of running the program, however, any donation amount is welcome.

To donate, please take a tag and an envelope from the Giving Tree or give online at holyr.org to the general Haiti Fund ("Lenten Offering" in the comments section).

For more information about the Goat & Chicken Project or the Holy Redeemer Haiti Mission, see our Project poster (in the back of church) or contact Jim Baum (314-853-7747, jk.baum@sbcglobal.net).

Donors Needed for Haiti Sea Container Shipment

This past week, the HR Haiti Committee was informed by the Parish Twinning Program of the Americas that it will be sponsoring a sea container shipment to Haiti this Spring. Despite the short notice, we feel we have enough time to put together a small shipment focused on specific items requested by our Haitian colleagues. Our shipment would need to be delivered to the warehouse in Nashville between the dates of April 19 and April 30. To help with this effort, we are asking for donations of the following items:

Composition books	Looseleaf paper	Pencils & Erasers
Watercolor paints	Art paint brushes	Construction paper
Acrylic paints	Pens (blue, red, black)	Children's backpacks
Felt material	Scissors	Glue sticks
Staplers/staples	Hand sanitizer	Bars of soap (no liquid)

Sewing supplies (large swaths of lightweight fabric, thread, yarn, needles, buttons)
Reusable children's ponchos

Please place the donated items in the Haiti baskets near the church exits.
All donations must be in by Sunday April 11. Thanks in advance for your support of this effort. For more information, contact Harry Bahr at 314-961-0230.

Cor Jesu Academy Summer Enrichment & Sports Camps

Grade-school girls will get a taste of what life is like at Cor Jesu Academy (CJA) where enrichment camps offer a treasure trove of activities, including dance, crafts, hiking, cooking, photography, chess and more! Plus, sharpen athletic skills with current players and coaches at CJA's sports camps. For all the info, visit www.corjesu.org/camps. Prices increase after May 15!

GAMAM Update!

I will be collecting any non-perishable food items on Sunday, March 28th from 10:00 am until 11:30 am near the Rectory garage. The donated food will be distributed by Webster- Rock Hill Ministries for those in need in the area.

Please be generous! Thank you so much!

Pat Kopp.

Holy Redeemer's St. Vincent de Paul Conference has been continually blessed by the incredible generosity of our parishioners.

Your support just last year provided us with $95,000 which we used in diverse ways to assist our neighbors in need. The bequest from our dear benefactor Marcia Carrigan will allow us to double those efforts annually to both support our Webster community even more, and to enable us to reach out farther than our own parish boundaries to assist other conferences in the St. Louis area who do not have the support or resources to fully serve their communities. In the coming months we are going to share examples of the support we are giving to those in need within and outside of our parish boundaries so you can visualize the benefits your generosity provides. It really is true that miracles always come just at the right time.

Your continuing support is a miracle to us and to those we assist.

Please contact Claudia Perreault at claud14@swbell.net with any questions or if you are interested in learning more about St. Vincent de Paul.

As you journey through Lent, hopefully your hearts and minds have settled into the pattern of prayerfulness and penance and planning to care for the poor.

Covenant Network can help you stay the course during this season of self- denial with inspirational and devotional programming including the daily Mass, the Rosary, the Divine Mercy Chaplet and other prayers.

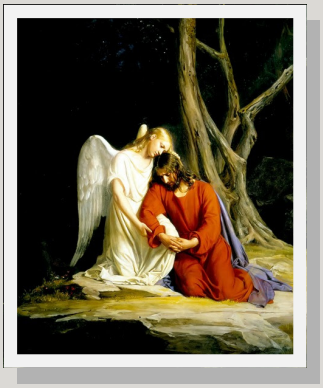
You can also hear faith-nourishing programs on Scripture, the saints and Church history. Tune into AM 1460 or 96.7 FM this Lent to help prepare your heart for Easter.

Dear Friends - Your Help Is Needed!

At Holy Redeemer we are fortunate to have weekly Eucharistic Adoration. We are grateful to the many faithful parishioners who visit and adore Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament each week to pray for our parish family and our world.

Some of our people have had to step down and we need more volunteers. If you can commit to the 10 pm hour each Tuesday, or if you could serve on the Substitute List, that would be greatly appreciated.

Please contact Ann Wollaeger (annwol@icloud.com or (314) 420-8050) if you can help. God Bless You!



Come visit Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament anytime on Tuesdays after the 8:15 am Mass through Wednesdays just before the 6:15 am Mass.

We are in the midst of Lent. Before it ends, will you watch One hour with Jesus, and grow closer to Him in prayer…as He yearns for you to do?

Lifeteen!

Meets tonight from 7 - 8:30 pm in the gym! All high school teens are encouraged to attend.

Lenten Retreat - Following Jesus in Freedom and Love

This retreat is for men and women of all ages and available in many different ways. It promises to be a wonderful way to enrich anyone's Lenten journey.

Following Jesus in Freedom and Love is a retreat offered by Fr. James Mason, President-Rector at Kenrick-Glennon Seminary. This Lenten study is designed to help form individuals and parishes in this understanding of one's identity and mission. The virtual platform of this retreat allows the faithful to participate at home, as a parish mission, or in private groups. A series of videos, with study guides to accompany each, address ways to grow in one's relationship with Christ and live it out in this apostolic age. Visit kenrick.edu/following-jesus for all retreat content and for more information.
