"He said to them, "Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while." Mark 6:31

Do you spend time, every day, alone and in silence listening to how God is calling you? If not, you are missing out on a wonderful opportunity to develop a more personal relationship with Him. Unless we talk and more importantly, listen to God every day, how else will we know how He is calling us? Consider making a retreat this year, spend some "alone" time with God.

Thank you for your generosity!

PASTOR'S CORNER

Praying for Haiti

I have had three trips scheduled for Haiti in my time here at Holy Redeemer. I have not made it there and it doesn't look like it is in my future for a long time. Here's why.

On the night of Wednesday, July 7th, the Haitian president, Jovenel Moïse, was shot and killed at his private residence in the hills above the capital, Port-au-Prince, during an attack in which his wife, Martine, was also severely injured. Although the official account of the attack places it at about 1 am, even that timeline has been questioned.

According to reports, about two dozen mercenaries stormed Moïse's villa, claiming to be DEA agents from the United States. Moïse was shot 12 times and his wife was severely injured. Oddly enough, none of his security forces were killed or harmed. (Uh, thanks but no thanks guys)

Well nature abhors a vacuum. So who is in charge of Haiti now? Great question! Various political figures are locked in a struggle over who is actually running the country (including two interim prime ministers, Claude Joseph and Ariel Henry), while a group of legislators has also recognized Joseph Lambert, the head of Haiti's dismantled senate, as provisional president. So take your pick. Meanwhile, there has been increased gang activity in Port-au-Prince which leads to paralyzing its fragile economy, closes schools and disrupts efforts to deal with the Covid-19 pandemic. One of the big leaders of the gangs is a former police officer named (not making it up) Jimmy "Barbecue" Cherizier. Jimmy's gang is called G9. Other gangs have more colorful names: 5 Seconds (the length of time to commit a crime) and 400 Mawozo which is roughly translated into 400 lame men. So it appears that chaos is in charge of Haiti now.

So who is behind the assassination? Another great question! And not an easy one to answer. There have been a number of people arrested in the assault, many of them Columbian nationals but a few US-Haiti citizens. And they all have different stories. James Solages, one of two US-Haitian citizens arrested, has told investigators that he and Joseph Vincent thought they had been hired as translators for a job found on the internet which they believed involved the arrest of Moïse, not his killing. The sister of Duberney Capador, a Colombian killed by security forces after Moïse's assassination, also said he told her he had gone to Haiti after receiving a job offer to protect a "very important person" and had sent her pictures of himself training at a country house. Five suspects are still at large.

The focus of inquiry, as of this writing, (things change rapidly) is a man named Christian Emmanuel Sanon, who apparently flew into Haiti in a private jet in June from Miami. He has a video on YouTube where he presents himself as a potential leader of Haiti. He calls himself a doctor, but he filed for bankruptcy in 2013. He also is listed as a church pastor. (wouldn't you know!). After the assassination, Sanon was the first person one of the alleged assassins called, according to police. You never know, but he sounds guilty…and not all that bright.

Needless to say, all of this is going to adversely affect this already beleaguered country. The last thing they needed was more chaos. So keep that land in your prayers, especially the wonderful people of our twin parish, St. Jean du Sud.

COMING BACK…..

Dear Parishioners of Holy Redeemer:

As of July 1, 2021, the dispensation from Sunday Mass has been lifted and I would personally like to invite you back to Sunday Mass here at Holy Redeemer in person. There are two thoughts that I would like to share with you.

First, back in the "lockdown" days, I celebrated the Chrism Mass virtually. It was fun getting into my vestments in my room and watching the Mass. It was fun for about 15 minutes. I suddenly became aware that it was not the same as being there. It wasn't even close. I missed sitting with my brother priests, I missed the magnificence of the Cathedral, I missed standing and renewing my priesthood in person. It was OK for the time, but I was resolved that if I had to do that for a long period of time, it would get tiresome. Very tiresome.

Second, I am proud to say that Holy Redeemer has been open for public services for over a year now without any incidents. We have had Baptisms, First Communions, School Masses, Confirmations, Weddings and Funerals. We have done all this with safety for all of our parishioners and visitors. Although we will still continue to live stream our Masses (so you can watch on vacation!), with (almost) everyone getting their vaccines, in person Masses are safer than ever.

So I wholeheartedly invite you back. We have missed having you in person.

If you are still reticent about coming or if you are physically unable to come, someone from the parish (myself, a deacon or a communion minister) would be more than happy to bring you communion. Just give us a call and let us know how we can help.

We need one another and we need one another in person. C'mon back. Your Parish Family is waiting!

In Christ,

Rev. Kevin V. Schmittgens
Pastor, Holy Redeemer Church

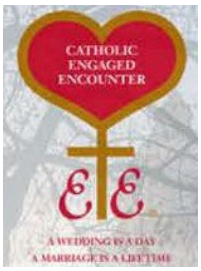
COMING SOON!

FISHPOT CREEK BLUEGRASS BAND will be joining us for the 5 PM Mass on Saturday, July 31. This will be their first time at Holy Redeemer since covid began more than a year and a half ago. We are excited to welcome them back!

"Bridges Retreat in Everyday Life"

Are you looking for a deeper prayer life and a closer relationship with God? If so, please consider the "Bridges Retreat in Everyday Life," based on the 450+ year-old Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius Loyola. This nine-month retreat is designed and adapted for persons in all walks of life. The retreat consists of daily prayer and one-on-one meetings with a trained prayer companion in addition to weekly or monthly small group meetings.
The retreat runs September into May and coincides with the Church's liturgical calendar. An information session will be held on Wednesday, July 28, at 10:00 am at Webster Groves Christian Church, Love Chapel, 1320 W. Lockwood Ave.
For more details about the retreat and information session schedules, visit: www.bridgesfoundation.org. For questions, contact Steve Givens, executive director, at: executive.director@bridgesfoundation.org or 314-401-2072.

Catholic Engaged Encounter



helps couples prepare for the many challenges they will face, and provides them with tools they can use to help them have a happy, loving, and long-lasting marriage. If you are engaged, consider attending our next Weekend, which will be held September 24-26, 2021. For more information go to: https://www.stlengagedencounter.org/, email engagedencounterstl@gmail.com or call Peggy and Richard Burton at 314-941

St. Vincent de Paul

The Society of St Vincent de Paul recognizes that an unexpected pregnancy can put a tremendous financial and emotional strain on couples already struggling to make ends meet. Through the Pregnancy Initiative Program, the SVDP partners with St. Louis crisis pregnancy centers to help mothers in crisis to choose life for their child by offering financial and emotional support. Holy Redeemer's SVDP has recently provided support to a couple in this situation. Your support has made it possible for them to choose life for their child and to remain in their home, and we have committed to following their journey through the birth of their child and beyond as needed. Your gifts help neighbors facing some of the toughest times of their lives.
God bless you for doing what you can for them.

A New Church Directory is Coming!

Your Information Update Is Needed.

We are currently working on our next church directory. It is time for us to update our database with any changes, additions, or deletions that may have occurred in YOUR family over the past year.

- Have you changed your phone number?
- Have you moved? Are you preparing to move soon?
- Are all of your children still at home and are they all included in your membership record?
- Do you still want your record published?

If you have not already informed the Church Office about changes to your record, please let us know now so that the information in the Directory is correct. (314) 962-0038, lmedley@holyr.org

Advertising Opportunity

Along with a complete directory of all members, this book will contain everything pertinent to our church: the various ministries, organizations, committees, activities, functions and events.

This book is being provided and direct-mailed to each family at no cost to our church, and it is again being subsidized by local businesses that advertise. If you own or manage a business and would like to find out about advertising in our book, please call the Church Office.

Recent survey results by Guide Book Publishing show that 92.1% of families would rather patronize a Guide Book & Directory advertiser over a non-advertiser. It "will pay" to advertise in our new Guide Book & Directory. Thank you!

Healing the Pain of Abortion One Weekend at a Time

For Women, Men and Couples

Rachel's Vineyard Ministries

Men, women and couples wounded by abortion are invited to attend the Rachel's Vineyard Retreat, offered through the Archdiocese of St. Louis Abortion Healing Ministry.

A trained and compassionate team, including a priest and professional therapist, will gently lead participants through the critical steps of healing after abortion and help them encounter the merciful love of Jesus Christ, the Divine Physician.

The $50 cost includes two night's lodging and all meals and materials. All information and inquiries are kept confidential.

"There is hope for your future."

Altar Care Helpers Needed

Now that we are back to full capacity and normal practices during Mass, we are looking for volunteers to freshen up the church on Saturday mornings in preparation for the weekend's Masses. Duties include straightening the books in the pews, replacing empty prayer candles, filling the holy water stoups etc. We are looking for a minimum of 2 additional volunteers in order to have a once every four weeks rotation. If you are interested, please email Claudia Perreault at claud14@swbell.net or call me at 314-952-6061. Thank you!
