PASTOR'S CORNER

CELEBRATING 40 YEARS

St. Ferdinand in Florissant. (One Year)
St. Sebastian in Dellwood. (Five Years)
St. John Gildehaus in Villa Ridge. (Eight Years)
Immaculate Conception in Union. (One Year)
St. Joseph Neier in the Union area. (Eighteen Years)
St. Francis Borgia in Washington. (Three Years)
Holy Redeemer in Webster Groves. (Four Years...and counting)

It has been quite a journey. Each parish, a joy. Each year, a good one. And so many memories.

So many good priests I have served with, many of whom have passed to the other side of life.

Teaching an eighth grade class my first year. (And subsequently seeing them grow up into amazing individuals.)

Baptizing infants and then years later, baptizing their children.

Presiding at weddings and then years later, presiding at their children's weddings.

Faculty basketball games and bicycle bar tours with the faculty of Aquinas-Mercy. (Was I really that young?)

Directing theatre productions at A-M and Borgia. (Sound of Music, See How They Run, Annie, Godspell, Anything Goes, Pippin, Barnum, Mame, The Fantasticks, Into the Woods, Guys and Dolls - to name a few)

Acting in theatre productions at the local community college, East Central. (Of Mice and Men, the Scottish Play, The Pirates of Penzance, 1776, Man of La Mancha, Noises Off)

Great times with the faculty of Borgia. (River Otter Hockey Games, Vegas Trips, countless Friday afternoon 'faculty meetings' at local Washington establishments)

Building two new buildings one at Neier and one at Borgia. (Talk about getting shoved out of your comfort zone!)

Fun and hilarious times in the classroom. (Occasionally, my students actually learned something.)

And throughout the entire time, the constant and consistent support of my family and friends.

There were some difficult times, to be sure. The loss of my mom in 1986, my dad in 1994, my little sister in 1999 and my big brother in 2013. There were funerals that only the grace of God guided me through. A triple funeral in 2003 of three young men killed in a car accident, held at Union High School to accommodate the crowd comes to mind, as does the funeral of a student I had known her entire life, may have been the only time I felt like I couldn't get up and speak about her. I was too broken. (I made it through.)

And then there was the funeral of Dakota.

Dakota was a two year old who was murdered by his mother's boyfriend. (Yep, you read that correctly.). I knew Dakota's great-grandparents and they asked me to do a service at the funeral home. I called the funeral director to get the lay of the land. "Would his father be there?" I asked. "Oh, no," the director told me, "he is not around." OK, I thought, that would be one less aspect of this mess with which I would not have to deal. I couldn't fathom the bitterness, the acrimony, the anger and hatred if the father of the slain child was in the same room as the mother whose "friend" had taken the life of his little one. That afternoon I boldly strode into the funeral home only to hear the sound of blood-curdling masculine wailing at the child's casket. Wha? Dad had shown up. The calculus of grief I had to deal with that day just became exponentially more complicated. I learned two great lessons that afternoon. Sometimes, you have to just dive into the uncomfortable and awkward, you have no choice. And when you are faced with this impossibly unsettling situation, only the grace of God gets you through. It was one of those moments (and I've had many) when I knew definitely that I had made the right decision to follow the call to the priesthood.

That is the cool thing about life, even the moments that make us flinch and cringe can be life-giving and enriching. But only if we allow it.

The biggest downside has been the horrible crimes committed by my brother priests. I could have done without the clergy scandal over the past forty years, but even in that ordeal I have experienced deep grace. After it all hit a couple of years back, one of my former students wrote me a beautiful letter expressing her support. Her kind words were an antidote, an anti venom, for the hatred and disgust that many people have for priests, no matter their guilt or lack thereof. And whenever it comes up in the news again, I know there are so many people surrounding me, past and present, whose backing and love I can count on. After one particularly difficult experience, I went to the home of one of my parishioners to anoint her son Ronnie, who was physically and mentally handicapped from a vicious childhood disease. That day I was feeling particularly sorry for myself. Needless to say, after encountering Ronnie and his remarkable spirit, I was fine (better than fine) and I resolved NEVER TO FEEL SORRY FOR MYSELF AGAIN. Ronnie died in December of 2003, but I will always carry in my soul the extraordinary and eternal gift he gave me that day.

It has been a great forty years. Only God knows how much longer He will allow me to serve his holy people. But even if it were to end next week, it has been quite a ride.

One last thing. I want to thank the faculty here at Holy and all the students of our school who were so gracious to me last week at an all-school Mass. I was humbled by your generosity and affection. Thanks. Thanks also to all the parishioners here at Holy that have made these last four, somewhat unconventional years, fun and fulfilling.

As we celebrate the Feast of Pentecost, we recognize the outpouring of the Holy Spirit upon us. In this moment, as Archbishop Rozanski prepares to share the future structure of the Archdiocese of St. Louis, we are struck by the constant need for Pentecost to happen in our Church each and every day. It is the Spirit that allowed the early Church to move from fear to courage - from silence to a bold proclamation of the Gospel. As we have arrived at this moment in the Archdiocese of St. Louis, this indeed is a new Pentecost for us.

After nearly two years of gathering data and feedback, Archbishop Rozanski will announce his decision regarding All Things New on Saturday, May 27, the day before Pentecost.

Pastors will be sharing information regarding the announcement as it pertains to their parish at all Masses Pentecost weekend, as well as through their usual communication outlets. On Saturday evening, information regarding all parishes and priest assignments will be posted on allthingsnew.archstl.org

As we prepare our hearts to be open to follow where the Holy Spirit will lead us, consider joining parishioners all over the archdiocese in praying a Novena to the Holy Spirit in the days leading up to Pentecost. The Novena prayers and audio can be found at allthingsnew.archstl.org/Resources/Novena-to-the-Holy-Spirit.

Let's continue to pray for each other as we discern the best path toward a renewed Catholic presence in every part of our archdiocese.

The weather is breaking and we look forward to an opportunity to strengthen the comradery with- in our community.

Please join HR Men’s Club for our SPRING BAGS TOURNAMENT on Thursday, May 25th in the back parking lot of HR. Tournament starts promptly at 7:30 pm. This will be our 5th tournament since 2020 and we have had a strong turnout in past events.

This is a great opportunity for new members of the Parish/School to meet others throughout the HR community and see what our Men’s Club is all about. OR, if you’ve been in the parish for years but have found yourself a little disconnected lately, please come out and see us, whether you plan to play in the tournament or not. The winner will select a charity of your choice to donate all proceeds minus expenses.

Please register your team if you plan to play or just show up and enjoy the socializing. This will help us plan for food and beverage purposes. Questions or to register please contact Mike Wazlawek at MWazlawek@polsinelli.com

Call for Nominations to the Haiti Committee

At our July meeting, the HR Haiti Committee will be voting in the officers and chairs for our next fiscal year. The officer positions include the Chairperson, Secretary, and Treasurer while the chair positions include Education, Fundraising, Medical, Dental, Food Security, and Public Outreach. In addition to filling these leadership roles, we are interested in anyone with expertise in agriculture, water sanitation, grant writing, or solar power installation. Come join the team! All of the work by the HR Haiti Mission supports our twinned Catholic parish in St. Jean du Sud, Haiti. Inquiries and nominations may be directed to Jim Baum (jbaum54@gmail.com; 314-853-7747).

HR HAITI COMMITTEE “SPONSOR-A-STUDENT PROGRAM” 2023-2024 SCHOOL YEAR

For over 19 years, our Haiti Committee has been sponsoring children at St Therese of the Infant Jesus School in our twining parish in St Jean du Sud, Haiti. This program allows HR parishioners and friends to donate $125 per school year per student to pay tuition for the children in the St Jean area who would otherwise be unable to attend school. Additional money is also needed to allow Sister to purchase needed books and supplies for the school children.

Due to the unrest and the rampant inflation in Haiti, the amount to sponsor a student this year has been increased to $125.00.

Anyone can be a Sponsor-A-Student donor. Just complete and return the attached form to the rectory or drop it in the collection basket OR you can go to www.holyr.org – OnLine Giving – Sponsor A Student to make your donation. Please note in the comments that you are sponsoring a student.

If you have any questions, please feel free to call Corky Bahr (314-520-3899) or email hjcfbahr@prodigy.net. Please send you donation by August 1, 2023 so that we have time to let Sister know how many students are sponsored. May God bless you for helping the children in St Jean du Sud, Haiti.
