*"Everyone who acknowledges me before others I will acknowledge before my heavenly Father."
MATTHEW 10:32*

Would others know that you are Catholic by the way you act and speak? Do you share your Catholic faith with others? Do you defend your Catholic faith when the situation arises or do you remain silent? Do you pray in public before meals? Pray for the strength and courage to be a joyful witness of our Catholic faith when the opportunity presents itself. Let us become the radiant light and bold witness that we are called to be!

PASTOR'S CORNER

All Things New Revisited

Now that the dust has settled a bit, I think it is good to reflect upon the last year and a half and where it may lead us into the future. Holy Redeemer has remained a stand-alone parish, but we lost our new associate pastor, Fr. Gene, who will be moving to Chesterfield. Fr. Charlie Samson, a professor at the seminary, will be in residence here at Holy. So on one level, very little has changed here at our parish. But what are we to make of all that happened? Four points.

One: The changes were not as sweeping as we thought they would be.

The original plan was to make 178 parishes into 88. That did not happen. Instead, roughly 40 parishes will be subsumed. Cure of Ars will be subsumed into St. Michael's. Multiple other parishes will be joined with others in a pastorate. Our Lady of Providence will be joined with Annunciation. The reason for this may be that, according to Canon Law, it takes a lot to close a parish. But there were some parishes that met the criteria. Take for instance, our neighbor Cure of Ars. There were four reasons for it being subsumed into St. Michael's, a drop in households from 230 to less than 165, dwindling numbers for Weekend Masses, few baptisms and funerals, and finally running a deficit budget.

From the last model, it looked like the four parishes south and east of us would merge, but this did not happen. There are a couple of ways we can interpret this, but, in general, I would say this is a positive thing.

Two: There were a lot of priest retirements.

Twenty-three priests retired, the most I have ever seen in my forty years as a priest. It was quite jarring. And the scary part is, this is just the tip of the iceberg... My class, if you count everyone up, started out with 15 priests. Two have left the priesthood, one cannot serve anymore, one has passed away, one was retired and another has just accepted retirement. That leaves nine of us still serving. Of those nine, only four of us will be pastors come August. My class was the last of the "large" classes, and we are all barreling toward our own retirement. If you doubted the reasons for All Things New, the fact that 23 priests retired this summer, is a wake-up call that it needed to happen.

Three: Schools: This is where it gets complicated.

The reorganization of schools will be happening this fall (I think). This process will not affect Holy Redeemer, at least in the short term. Holy Redeemer School is alive and vibrant. But in other areas (I am thinking about the great-niece's school) this is going to be a very difficult and painful process. Having run a school, I know that it is trickier than it looks. In the old days, you would just reload your faculty with a new batch of religious sisters. Those days are gone. Beyond that, there is much more demanded from a Catholic school than we previously experienced. Not only are you concentrating on the basic academics and sponsoring a vibrant athletic programs, now you are asked to be on the cutting edge of technological advances as well as offering a wide variety specialty programs for your students. Not to mention, schooling them in the ways of sanctity. We want to make them saints, don't we?

The fall of 2023 might be the most complicated and thorny time in the history of the Archdiocese of St. Louis and the issue of schools will be at the forefront. In case you are wondering, I am a strong proponent of Catholic schools. I have seen them accomplish amazing things over my forty years. So I believe that we are up to the difficult challenges that lay before us.

Four: What is a parish?

If there is one brilliant thing that happened over the past year and a half, it is the idea that we as Catholics in the Archdiocese of St. Louis have thought about, prayed about, discussed and argued about what it means to be a parish. And the greatest thing that we learned is that we have to be less – ahem – parochial. From the very beginning of this process we have wrestled with what a parish is all about, our strengths and weaknesses, what we do well and where we need vast improvement. We have learned that we need to become disciples, sharing the life and love we discover in our lives to a world that often looks for meaning in very meaningless things. We have begun to realize that we are all in this together and that what we share with our fellow Catholics is way more invigorating and life-giving than we could ever imagine.

Practically speaking, what this means for Holy Redeemer Parish is two-fold. First we must continue to build on the strengths we undoubtedly have. Our outreach to those less fortunate, both here in our local community and with our twin parish in Haiti comes to mind. Our small Christian communities, where searching sisters and brothers come together to make their way through the muddle and glory of our Christian lives is an amazing blessing. Then, there's the formation of our young people, both in our day school and PSR, as they face a technological jungle where we are both intimately and immediately present and yet still strangely alone and alienated. Second, we must strive to become active disciples of our Lord, sharing the hope, strength and vigor of our Christian faith.

In closing I think of the verses to a song from one of my favorite musicals, Les Miserables. It never fails to stir and motivate me to do more, be more, share more:

*Will you join in our crusade,
who will be strong and stand with me
Somewhere beyond the barricade is there a world you long to see?
Do you hear the people sing,
say do you hear the distant drum?*

It is the future that they bring when tomorrow comes!

That is truly a day when all things will indeed, be new.

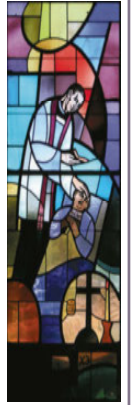

Father Kevin

ANOINTING OF THE SICK

If you suffer from chronic illness, or have a scheduled medical procedure, you can receive the sacrament of anointing. Please contact the parish office (314) 962-0038, to request a visit from Fr. Kevin or Fr. Gene.

Make Haiti Green Again - the work begins July 1

Thanks to your generosity during this year's Lenten Offering, Making Haiti Green Again, we raised ~ $55,000 of the $74,000 needed to finance our Haiti Mission's five-year collaboration with the Smallholder Farmers Alliance and the Raising Haiti Foundation to establish a Tree Currency program in St. Jean du Sud, the home of our twinned parish. Starting with 400 participant families, a tree nursery program will be established and participants will receive agronomic training, farming tools, high quality black bean and pigeon pea seeds, and access to a community run seed bank in exchange for their planting and caring for a variety of tree species, including fruit- and nut- trees. The five-year goal is to plant 75,000 trees in the St Jean community, stabilize badly-eroded landscapes, provide marketable tree produce, and improve farmer yields. The program is scheduled to launch on July 1 and will be reviewed on an annual basis with both our US- and Haitian-based partners. Expect status updates in September.

HR HAITI COMMITTEE "SPONSOR-A-STUDENT PROGRAM" 2023-2024 SCHOOL YEAR

For over 19 years, our Haiti Committee has been sponsoring children at St Therese of the Infant Jesus School in our twinning parish in St Jean du Sud, Haiti. This program allows HR parishioners and friends to donate $125 per school year per student to pay tuition for the children in the St Jean area who would otherwise be unable to attend school. Additional money is also needed to allow Sister to purchase needed books and supplies for the school children.

Due to the unrest and the rampant inflation in Haiti, the amount to sponsor a student this year has been increased to $125.00.

Anyone can be a Sponsor-A-Student donor. Just complete and return the attached form to the rectory or drop it in the collection basket OR you can go to www.holyr.org – OnLine Giving – Sponsor A Student to make your donation. Please note in the comments that you are sponsoring a student.

If you have any questions, please feel free to call Corky Bahr (314-520-3899) or email hjcfbahr@prodigy.net. Please send you donation by August 1, 2023 so that we have time to let Sister know how many students are sponsored. May God bless you for helping the children in St Jean du Sud, Haiti.

Bridges Foundation offers a life-changing experience of the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius Loyola in Everyday Life

For more than 30 years, the Bridges Retreat has been helping individuals connect and integrate the 500-year-old Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius Loyola into their busy lives. The 8-month retreat helps participants draw closer to God and Jesus, create a more disciplined prayer life using a variety of prayer styles, find spiritual guidance for making big decisions, and form a clearer picture of their purpose and future. Here's what is involved:

- The opportunity to have a full experience of the Spiritual Exercises over an extended period of time, as envisioned and created by St. Ignatius, the founder of the Society of Jesus (Jesuits).
 - A commitment to about an hour of prayer each day, following a modern translation of the original text.
 - Personalized, one-on-one guidance from an experienced, trained prayer companion.
 - Weekly or monthly small community meetings at four locations throughout the St. Louis metropolitan area, in addition to an online option for those outside the area or those who need a virtual experience.
- The retreat begins in September 2023 and ends in May 2024> It is open to Christians of all denominations and is designed to meet the spiritual longings of persons at all stages of the life journey. Free information sessions will be offered at a number of Greater St. Louis-area sites this summer, as well as a virtual "Zoom" session. There will be an information session at Webster Groves Christian Church, 1320 E. Lockwood on Wednesday, July 19, at 10:00 am. For more details about the retreat and full information session schedule, visit: www.bridgesfoundation.org. For questions, contact Steve Givens, executive director, at: executive.director@bridgesfoundation.org or 314-401-2072. Bridges flyers are available at Church doors.
