PASTOR'S CORNER

Odds and Ends

"Vacation's All I Ever Wanted"

As you may have guessed already, I am away for a little R and R up in Michigan. I should be home by this Thursday. Next month I am going on a family trip down to the Smoky Mountains in Tennessee. I will just be gone during the week. Then in October, I am leading a pilgrimage to the Holy Land. I will be gone the last two weekends of October, and I am planning to return in time for Masses on All Saints' Day.

New Employees!

There will be some new faces around Holy Redeemer. First and foremost, even though Fr. Gene will be leaving us, we will have a new associate pastor, Fr. Charles Samson. Fr. Samson is a professor at Kenrick Seminary and an author. (He wrote a book about taking a pilgrimage to the Holy Land!) Fr. Samson is a part-time associate, which means that his primary responsibility is as an educator. (I was once a part-time associate and it is a tricky thing to maneuver, so he will have to set his own schedule.) We welcome Fr. Samson!

We have a new Coordinator of Religious Education, Teresa Roberson-Mullins. Teresa has been in education and brings an extensive background to Holy Redeemer. She will be in charge of the Parish School of Religion as well as our Sacramental Program for our students. (Reconciliation, Confirmation and First Holy Communion) Teresa is talented and spirited. She will make a great addition to our pastoral team.

Lastly, we have a new company in charge of maintenance here on our premises. Over the past few months, Laurie Medley and Fr. Gene have been interviewing various companies, included our previous one, and have made a decision (run past our Finance Council) to move to a new crew. In addition to that, one of our parishioners, Dan Hartrich, is helping with various projects around the buildings. (Dan solved our flooding problem from a few weeks back.)

Confirmation (never too early to get organized)

If you want to mark your calendars, we will celebrate the Sacrament of Confirmation on Thursday, March 7, 2024 at 7 pm. Our new vicar, Fr. Scott Jones will be the celebrant. (more discussion about the vicars next week.) If you have a student in one of the private Catholic middle schools or in Holy Cross Academy, and you want them to be confirmed here at Holy Redeemer, please contact Fr. Kevin. In the past, eighth graders from Visitation and Chaminade went to our PSR classes. I found that a bit redundant. Instead, I would like to have a special program for them in coordination with their present schools.

They would still be included in our Confirmation Retreat (this year on January 13, 2024). We need to get this organized as soon as possible. We cannot wait until November to get this together. So, if you have a student in this situation and you want them to be confirmed here at Holy Redeemer, please give me a call.

Another book!

I finished another summer book (actually I cheated and listened to it on Audible – but that was fortuitous) called The Wager by David Grann. Two of Grann's other books have been made into films: The Lost City of Z and Killers of the Flower Moon (due to be released this October).

The Wager begins ominously, as 30 men in a makeshift vessel land on the coast of Brazil after begin lost for months. They were hailed as heroes. A couple of months later, three men wash up on the shore of Chile, and they tell a different tale, a tale of mutiny. Their backstories provide the basis of the book and it is an adventure and survival tale of the highest sort. Sailing around Cape Horn, the tip of South America, was a harrowing voyage, but sea travel in 1741 in general was difficult, gruesome and deadly. Most of HMS Wager's 250 plus crew died of disease, primarily scurvy, caused by a deficiency of Vitamin C. (They learned at last to bring citrus fruits with them to avoid this, hence the term "limeys" for British sailors.) We know about the fate of the good ship Wager from the logs and diaries of a couple of the survivors, most notably Lord Byron's grandfather who was a midshipman (only in his teens) on the vessel.

Besides being a great story (and I am a sucker for great stories), the book shares the truth about life on a ship (not pleasant), the need for sailing men (often old and infirm, and most of them could not swim) and the turns of phrases we get from the British navy. "Toe the line," "Scuttlebutt," "Pipe Down," "Piping Hot," "Three Sheets to the Wind," and "True Colors" all come out of the British naval experience.

I didn't give away the whole plot. All of what I told are recounted in the first three pages of the book. There are more twists and amazing occurrences to be revealed. It is a quick, fascinating read.

Father Kevin

SAVE THE DATE - SUNDAY, JULY 30
AFTER 9AM MASS

FAREWELL TO FR. GENE!

Come celebrate Father Gene with donuts after the 9am Mass on Sunday, July 30th in the Church Meeting Room (CMR).

As you know, Father Gene will be leaving HR to become the Associate Pastor of Ascension Parish in Chesterfield on August 1st. Let's show our appreciation for the year of dedication he has given to Holy Redeemer!

Welcome

Welcome Teresa Roberson-Mullins: Religious Education Coordinator at Holy Redeemer!

I hope all of you are enjoying your summer! I started out in June, spending most of my time hiking, kayaking or taking day trips around St. Louis with my grandchildren. Thank goodness two can drive now, because all eight won't fit in my car! I've also been able to spend time with my four adult-children.

July has been a little busier, as I begin my ministry at Holy Redeemer. I am both humbled and honored to have accepted Fr. Kevin's offer as the Catechetical Leader for Holy's PSR and School. 50 years ago this September, I taught my first PSR class. In the years that followed, I taught, or was the Catechetical Leader, for a number of parishes, before I transitioned into full-time healthcare ministry as a chaplain.

When I semi-retired, my ministry journey came full circle, when God surprised me by calling me back to Catechetical Ministry. But, like the twists and turns on a hiking trail, or kayaking on the river, God places surprising and unexpected twists in on our life journey. And on each new adventure, around each twist in the path, there is God!! Isn't it wonderful to know that "Your God is with you, wherever you go"? (Joshua 1:9)

I look forward to meeting all of you on the journey.

Teresa Roberson-Mullins

LECTORS & MINISTERS NEEDED:

Are you looking for a way to serve your parish? We are in need of people to serve as Lectors and Eucharistic Ministers at all weekend Masses. You do not have to have prior experience – we can provide training.

Please use the link below to give us your information and someone will contact you.

Thank you!

Help Wanted - Youth Ministry Director

This full-time position undertakes the challenge of organizing and coordinating the youth ministry efforts of Holy Redeemer Parish so that middle school and high school parishioners are given every opportunity to experience the life-changing power of a personal relationship with Jesus Christ. Collaboration will be expected with a variety of staff and parishioners.

Please contact Fr. Kevin if you are interested.
(314) 962-0038 or fatherkevin@holyr.org

GAMAM

Please place any non-perishable food items you could donate to WEBSTER ROCK HILL MINISTRIES in the blue Rubbermaid container in the back of church by Sunday, July 23rd. I will be delivering your donations after Sunday. Personal care items are also acceptable! Thank you to all who support this mission. They are very grateful always!

Your spiritual journey will be enriched by tuning in often to Covenant Network Catholic radio. Our programming which includes daily Holy Mass, the Rosary, the Divine Mercy Chaplet, live call-in shows and much more will help nourish your Catholic faith. Listen to KHOJ 1460 AM or 96.7 FM, or on the Covenant Network app or anytime at OurCatholicRadio.org.

HR HAITI COMMITTEE “SPONSOR-A-STUDENT PROGRAM” 2023-2024 SCHOOL YEAR

For over 19 years, our Haiti Committee has been sponsoring children at St Therese of the Infant Jesus School in our twinning parish in St Jean du Sud, Haiti. This program allows HR parishioners and friends to donate $125 per school year per student to pay tuition for the children in the St Jean area who would otherwise be unable to attend school. Additional money is also needed to allow Sister to purchase needed books and supplies for the school children.

Due to the unrest and the rampant inflation in Haiti, the amount to sponsor a student this year has been increased to $125.00.

Anyone can be a Sponsor-A-Student donor. Just complete and return the attached form to the rectory or drop it in the collection basket OR you can go to www.holyr.org – OnLine Giving – Sponsor A Student to make your donation. Please note in the comments that you are sponsoring a student.

If you have any questions, please feel free to call Corky Bahr (314-520-3899) or email hjcfbahr@prodigy.net. Please send you donation by August 1, 2023 so that we have time to let Sister know how many students are sponsored. May God bless you for helping the children in St Jean du Sud, Haiti.
